

Bonnefield Financial Announces Senior Executive Promotions

Toronto (January 7, 2025) – Bonnefield Financial Inc. (“Bonnefield” or the “Company”), a leading Canadian farmland and agribusiness investment manager, is pleased to announce the promotion of two of its senior executives.

Andrea Gruza Promoted to President

The Company is pleased to announce the promotion of Andrea Gruza to President effective January 1, 2025. In this role, Andrea oversees Bonnefield activities across all business units, while maintaining direct responsibility for driving fundraising, investor relations, and ESG activities. Additionally, Andrea is a key driver of the firm’s long-term strategy including new product development and strategic priorities.

Tom Eisenhauer, CEO & Founding Partner said “Since joining Bonnefield nearly six years ago, Andrea has been an instrumental partner to me and has increasingly contributed to the growth and success of the Company. Andrea consistently demonstrates our core values and is a champion of our high-performance culture.”

Sam Doyle Promoted to Managing Partner

Bonnefield is also pleased to announce the promotion of Sam Doyle to Managing Partner effective January 1, 2025. Sam joined Bonnefield in 2022 to provide leadership to the Investment Management team and to launch Bonnefield’s Agribusiness Fund.

“In his time with Bonnefield”, says Eisenhauer, “Sam has immensely contributed to the culture of Bonnefield. He is a seasoned investment professional who is able to lead and develop the next generation of talent through his experience and commitment to excellence. This promotion reflects the valuable role he provides to the organization.”
